SCHEDULE
RULES OF STUDENT CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

1. INTERPRETATION

The University officers charged with the administration of these rules will at all times seek to implement the letter and spirit of the Great Zimbabwe University Act and will in particular have regard to the following principles:

- 1.1 Great Zimbabwe University is a community in which high standards of communal life must be established and maintained for the benefit of both present and future members of the University.
- 1.2 a high level of personal integrity and a developed sense of responsibility towards others are as important to the University as outstanding scholastic achievement.
- 1.3 a proper concern for the reputation of the University and what it ought to stand for makes it incumbent upon its members to live decent and ordered lives.
- 1.4 individual or collective action by members of the University which constitutes a breach of these rules may require to be punished notwithstanding that the motive or goal of such action was a commendable one in the belief of such members.

2. UNDERTAKING AT REGISTRATION

When registering as a member of Great Zimbabwe University a student shall be given a copy of these rules and shall sign a statement in which s/he acknowledges that s/he has been furnished with the rules, and s/he undertakes to conduct himself/herself while a student of the University in accordance therewith and with any amendments duly made thereto.

3. STUDENT CONDUCT

3.1 No student of the University shall:-

- 3.1.1 use the University premises contrary to University regulations, residence, faculty or departmental rules or do any act reasonably likely to cause such misuse;
- 3.1.2 damage or deface any property of the University or do any act reasonably likely to cause damage or defacement thereto;
- 3.1.3 disrupt teaching, study, research or administrative work, or prevent any member of the University or its staff from carrying on his/her study or work, or do any act reasonably likely to cause disruption or prevention;
- 3.1.4 engage in any conduct whether on or off campus which is or is reasonably likely to be, harmful to the interests of the University, members of the University staff or students.

3.2 The following would be regarded by the University as instances of breaches of the rule contained in 3.1 above:

- 3.2.2 disrupting or seeking to disrupt any proper function of the University whether it be an official function, Council meeting, Senate meeting, faculty or committee meeting, lecture, teaching session, the function of any University society or day to day administrative activity;
- 3.2.3 seeking to prevent a speaker invited by any section of the University community from lawfully expressing his views.

3.3 Students are informed that:-

- 3.3.1 if a group of students forms a common intention to commit certain acts to assist each other in their commission, and in due course a breach of these rules is committed by one or some of the group, then each member of the group may be held to have committed that breach of the rules, who foresaw that the breach would occur, or who must, in the view of the Student Disciplinary Committee, have foreseen that it would occur. A member of such a group can avoid this happening to him/her by taking clear and unequivocal steps, before such a breach is committed, to show that he/she dissociates himself/herself from the acts of the group with whom he/she has so far been associating;
- 3.3.2 where a number of students have committed a breach of these rules and only one or more of these students can be identified, the University will not hesitate to take disciplinary action against those students who can be identified and against whom there is sufficient evidence to warrant investigation;
- 3.3.3 where a student commits an act which is both an offence according to the laws of the country and one which after investigation appears to be breach of the disciplinary rules of the University, the University may punish such a student notwithstanding that he/she is prosecuted and/or punished by the courts of the country.

3.4 A student shall obey any rules made from time to time by the Vice-Chancellor and shall further obey all instructions given by the Vice-Chancellor, the
