

NOTICE TO STUDENTS

Students are being advised that they will not be expected back on campus after the New Year. They will only come for end of semester examinations tentatively scheduled for the period 31 January to 18 February 2022. Kindly note that submission of coursework and assignments as well as revision will continue online. The official examination timetable and any important information will be officially communicated through student portals and the University's website. Students are therefore encouraged to keep checking their portals and the website for any such communication.

Remember to get vaccinated as you prepare for examinations.

Happy New Year and best wishes in the forthcoming examinations.

Thank you
