Council

MEMO

TO: GZU STUDENTS

FROM: SRC

DATE: 31 March 2023

The SRC is inviting underprivileged students to apply for the March-June 2023 SEC charity fund. This notice serves to invite students facing financial problems and are in need of financial aid to apply for the student fund. Applicants are to highlight in their application challenges they are facing.

Interested and suitable candidates should kindly attach to their application letter; results from all previous semesters, previous semesters fees statement, applicant's reliable contact details, next of kin's contact details.

Applicants are requested to submit their applications to the Student Representative Council office at the Mashava Campus or at the University counsellor's office at the Hebert Chitepo Law School.

NB: Application for student fund will be open from 3rd April to 5th of April 2023
